

Sec. 19. And be it enacted That the said Baltimore and Pikesville Railway Company shall commence the construction of said railway within ninety days from the time this act shall take effect, and complete the same within twelve months from its commencement.

Construction of road to commence within ninety days.

Sec. 20. And be it enacted, That the said Baltimore and Pikesville railway company, be, and they are hereby required to reduce the grade of the two hills, the one near the second mile stone, known as "Long Hill," the other near the three mile stone, known as "Stony Hill," on the said turnpike road, eleven feet each, below their present grade.

Required to reduce grade.

Sec. 21. And be it enacted, That the said railroad company shall construct a good and substantial iron railway, but the gauge of said road shall be the same as that of the Baltimore City Passenger Railway, and further the said railway company be and they are hereby required to purchase the omnibus horses and equipments from the proprietor or proprietors of the omnibus line now running on the said Baltimore and and Reisterstown turnpike from Baltimore City to Pikesville: provided, that in case of any dispute as regards price between the parties, the matter shall be submitted to arbitration.

Required to purchase omnibus equipments.

Proviso.

Sec. 22. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect and have full operation, only on condition that the President, Managers and Company of the Baltimore and Reisterstown turnpike road company do not carry into effect the act authorizing and empowering them to lay a track of iron railway on their said road, but this act to take effect and have full force and operation immediately after the failure of the said Reisterstown Turnpike Company, to carry into effect this said act; and that this act shall not take effect, unless the act to authorize the Reisterstown Turnpike Company to build a railway in the turnpike is passed by this General Assembly.

To have effect only on condition.

Sec. 23. And be it enacted, That the Legislature, hereby reserves to itself the right to alter, amend or repeal this act or any part thereof.

Reservation.